

One of the most remarkable photos of Niagara Falls ever made. An aerial view of America's picturesque spot, showing the waters making their way from comparative calm through the boiling race of the rapids and in a spray of mist over the falls. Grand Island can be seen in the distance. Kadel & Herbert.

United States Senator Walter E. Edge of New Jersey and his fiancée, Miss Camilla Sewall of Bath, Me., photographed on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City. International.

Not by Rosa Bonheur—merely an active lot of Welsh ponies which required a lot of attention at a recent sale. Underwood & Underwood.

The Giants' star second baseman, Frank Frisch, and his bride, who was Miss Ada E. Lucy. International.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet and some of their guests at a hunting party in their home at Goshen. In the group are, left to right: Mrs. Goelet, Prince de Braganza, Mr. Goelet, Miss Louise Wilson, Mrs. H. L. McVicar and Mrs. Townsend Phillips. Wide World.

Baby Robert Goelet, Jr., 22 months old, and among those present at his parents' house party. Wide World.

Mme. Galli-Curci as a Camp Fire Girl. The noted soprano was given the Indian name of Cantewaste ("Singing Heart") and presented with an Indian costume made by the girls in Minneapolis. Kadel & Herbert.
